Old & New Business:

Lowell KK5JZ introduced his son Randy N3TUZ who was visiting.

Jennifer KG4YDC reported on the Red Cross CDREE that was held this past week. She said there was 100% participation from club members and gave a big thank you to all.

Linda Hutton was approved for an Associate Membership.

Lowell KK5JZ will present a program at the next meeting.

It was decided the Holiday meeting would be held At Ryan's in Easley on Dec. 7th at 6:30 PM.

The present officers were elected for another term.

Brian KR4SP announced the ARRL is starting up a Bureau of Speakers for club meetings. He asked for volunteers to go to other clubs and invited them to register with him if they would like to make a presentation. A discussion followed.

Jennifer KG4YDC reminded everyone of the picnic at Amor N2FY and Judy's on October 1st.

Gretchen KE4HGX suggested the club make its annual contribution for a worthy cause to the Gleaning House in Pickens. It was voted to spend $50 on the food. Jennifer KG4YDC and Gretchen KE4HGX will make that purchase this week and deliver it to Jerry KB8BN and Diana N8COB at the picnic.

Allan gave us the guide lines and passed out maps for the Simplex QSO Party at 3:00 PM this afternoon. It was suggested that at 2:55 Net Control Gretchen KE4HGX would take a roll call on the club 2 Meter repeater and then move to a 2 Meter simplex frequency.

Drawings were held for the 50/50 raffle and door prize and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectively submitted:

Gretchen KE4GHX Secretary/ Treasurer FARC
